Re: Darin Edwin Pape v. Bodum U.S.A., Inc., Case No. 1:23-cv-08401-KPF Joint Request To Adjourn Pre-Trial Conference or, Alternatively, to Participate in the Conference Remotely

Dear Judge Failla:

Pursuant to the Court's September 19, 2024, Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order (ECF No. 27), the parties are scheduled to appear on February 5, 2025, for a Pre-Trial Conference in the above-captioned matter. Defendant Bodum U.S.A., Inc. intends to seek leave to file a combined motion for summary judgment and to exclude Plaintiff's expert witness, Ms. Mingxi Zheng, pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 702 after the close of discovery on March 10, 2025. Although Plaintiff opposes Bodum's request and any subsequent dispositive motion, the parties respectfully move the Court to adjourn the Pre-Trial Conference until any such dispositive motion, if permitted, is resolved.

If the Court wishes to proceed with the Pre-Trial Conference on February 5, 2025, the parties respectfully request that they be permitted to participate in the conference remotely. Plaintiff's lead counsel, Adam Kress, is located in Saint Paul, Minnesota, and Bodum's lead counsel, Jason Wheeler, is in St. Louis, Missouri. Counsel for both parties agree that the travel costs associated with their attendance at the Conference in person would be an impediment to the ultimate resolution of the case.
